Terms and conditions for booking a course with Fiftybar Diving

1. Candidates agree to abide by the rules and guidelines laid out by Fiftybar Diving in all diving matters.
2. Fiftybar Diving reserves the right to delay, postpone or cancel a course; no liability can be accepted by Fiftybar Diving for loss or expense incurred.
3. Candidates must complete all relevant paperwork before any diving activity can take place.
4. Candidates using any equipment that is the property of Fiftybar Diving must return equipment in the same condition and are financially liable for any damage to item(s), loss of item(s) or theft of item(s).
5. Candidates wishing to use their own equipment must have it approved by Fiftybar Diving to make sure it is suitable.
6. Fiftybar Diving cannot be held responsible if your negligence causes personal injury and/or damage to equipment.
7. Fiftybar Diving cannot issue any refunds or course fees.
8. If a candidate is unable to attend or complete a course, Fiftybar Diving maintains the right to continue the course as and when is suitable to Fiftybar Diving.
9. I agree that reasonable time will be allocated to my training but I understand that if I require additional training I will be financially liable for this additional instruction.
10. I understand that the course is performance related and if I do not reach a standard considered suitable by Fiftybar Diving, I could fail the course & still be liable for the full course fee.
11. I agree to complete knowledge reviews before diving activities, failure to do so may result in Fiftybar Diving re-scheduling diver training.

I have read the terms & conditions listed by Fiftybar Diving, I fully understand them and agree to abide by all the conditions:
